XVI. Related University Policies

I: Purpose
The University of Northern Iowa is committed to the education and personal development of students, so as to support the achievement of their educational and life goals and prepare them for responsible citizenship. In this context, the University seeks to foster an environment conducive to achieving its academic mission and that is supportive of the rights of individuals to live, work, learn, and assemble safely and equitably; to express views and opinions; and to associate freely with others.

The purpose of this policy is to outline university standards for student behavior and delineate the processes by which allegations of misbehavior will be addressed in order to safeguard the rights, property, and safety of the University community and individuals in it; to ensure that student behavior complies with applicable law and policy; and to permit the orderly operation of the University.
II: Policy
Students and student organizations are expected to adhere to the standards of conduct described herein. Failing to do so may result in sanction(s).

Allegations of misconduct will be addressed through processes that ensure due process and contribute to the education of all involved.

Students and student organizations are responsible for knowing the information, policies, and procedures outlined in this document. Students are informed of the Student Conduct Code during orientation, are annually provided notification of it via email, and have access to the Student Conduct Code via the University website.

III: Philosophy
The Student Conduct Code is grounded in a commitment to three core values:

- Respect: University of Northern Iowa students support the rights of individuals to live and work with each other in a safe environment reflective of the educational ideals of the University.
- Responsibility: University of Northern Iowa students engage in responsible social conduct that reflects positively upon the University community, while modeling good citizenship in all communities.
- Honesty: University of Northern Iowa students live a life of integrity, creating good leaders, friends, and colleagues who share the common goal of building our learning community.

IV: Student Conduct Authority

A. Authority: The Vice President for Student Affairs is vested with the administrative responsibility for the establishment and enforcement of policies governing student conduct and disciplinary action by the President of the University. The Vice President has, in turn, delegated considerable authority to the Dean of Students. The Dean of Students appoints Student Conduct Administrators trained to efficiently and effectively administer the student conduct process.

B. Merit: Complaints will not be forwarded for a hearing unless there is reasonable cause to believe a policy has been violated. Reasonable cause is defined as credible information to support each element of the offense.

C. Interpretation: The Dean of Students will develop procedural rules for the administration of the Student Conduct Code. Any question of interpretation of the Student Conduct Code will be referred to the Dean of Students, whose interpretation is final.

D. Communication: University email is the University’s primary means of communication with students. Students are responsible for all communication delivered to their university email address.

V: Jurisdiction
The Student Conduct Code and related policies and procedures apply to the conduct of individual students, both undergraduate and graduate, and all university-affiliated student organizations. The definition of student, in section VII, will be used in the interpretation and application of this policy.

The Student Conduct Code applies to behaviors that take place on campus, at university-sponsored events, through electronic media, and may also apply off-campus when the Dean of Students or designee determines the off-campus conduct is of university interest. A university interest is a matter of concern that includes:

A. Any situation where it appears that the student’s conduct may present a danger or threat to the health or safety of self or others;

B. Any situation significantly infringing upon the rights, property, or educational pursuits of others or significantly breaching the peace and/or causing social disorder; and/or,
C. Any situation detrimental to the pursuit of the educational mission and/or interests of the University. The Student Conduct Code may be applied to behavior online, via email, or other electronic media. Online postings such as blogs, web postings, chats, and social networking sites are in the public sphere and are not private.

Students may be held accountable for the misconduct of their guests. Visitors to and guests of the University may seek resolution of alleged violations of the Student Conduct Code committed against them by students of the University community.

Reports of alleged policy violations should be submitted as soon as possible after the misconduct event occurs. Although there is no time limit on the reporting of misconduct, the university may ultimately be unable to adequately investigate if too much time has passed or if the students involved have graduated. Though anonymous complaints are permitted, doing so may limit the University’s ability to investigate and respond to an alleged violation.

VI: Violations of Law
The student conduct process is distinct and different from criminal and civil court proceedings. Alleged violations of federal, state, and local laws may be investigated and addressed under the Student Conduct Code. When an offense occurs over which the University has jurisdiction, the University conduct process will generally go forward regardless of any criminal or civil action that may arise from the same incident.

A student may face interim actions as outlined in Section XII.

Determinations made or sanctions imposed under the Student Conduct Code will not be subject to change because criminal or civil action arising out of the same facts were dismissed, reduced, or resolved in favor of or against the respondent.

VII: Definitions
A. Administrative Hearing: A formal meeting between a respondent and a Student Conduct Administrator to determine responsibility for allegations of misconduct.

B. Advisor: A person who may be present and assist the involved parties through the conduct process. Advisors may be members of the campus community, but the parties may select whoever they wish to serve as their advisor. in need. Educational sanctions may be required, but will not otherwise result in a violation of the Student Conduct Code as long as the educational sanctions are completed.

Any exemption from conduct action granted under this policy may only apply to conduct action and/or sanctions under the Student Conduct Code and does not apply to any criminal action taken by law enforcement, such as issuing a citation or making an arrest.

While this provision applies to individual students, if an organization has been found in violation of the Student Conduct Code, then the organization’s willingness to seek medical assistance for a guest may be viewed as a mitigating factor if or when sanctions are issued.

XI: Student Organizations

Unless otherwise denoted, the use of the term “student organization” shall include all registered student organizations and other student groups associated with the University of Northern Iowa.

When a report of alleged misconduct involving a student organization is brought to the attention of the Dean of Students, the Dean of Students or designee may consult with individuals who have oversight, responsibility for, or interest in the organization.

The determination regarding whether an alleged policy violation was committed by a student organization or by individual(s) will be made on a case-by-case basis. The following factors will be considered when making this determination:

A. How many of the members of the student organization were involved in the incident?
B. Did the incident occur in relation to an event sponsored by the organization?
C. Did a member(s) of the organization violate university policy(ies) at an event sponsored by the organization or in the course of the organization’s affairs, and fail to exercise reasonable preventative measures?
D. Did the organization’s leadership have knowledge that the event was going to occur?
E. What was the nature of the incident?

Any individual(s) acting on behalf of an organization may also be referred to the Dean of Students for individual allegations of misconduct.

When a student organization is involved as a respondent, the president (or equivalent executive position) will be considered as the representative of the student organization and will be provided notice of the allegation.

Complaints of alleged violations of the Student Conduct Code by student organizations will go through the same student conduct process as an individual student, except there is not an option for a Conduct Board Hearing.

If a registered student organization is found responsible for violating the Student Conduct Code, Northern Iowa Student Government (NISG), specifically the President, Vice President, Director of Administration and Finance, NISG Advisor, and the advisor of the registered student organization, will receive notification by being copied on the outcome letter. Other student groups associated with the University and their respective advisors would receive similar notice.

Student organization conduct records will be managed by the Office of the Dean of Students. Student organization conduct records are not subject to privacy regulations but will only be released at the discretion

4. If it is determined that reasonable cause exists for the Dean of Students or designee to refer a complaint for a hearing, notice will be given to the respondent. Notice will be given in writing and may be delivered by one or more of the following methods:
   a. emailed to the student’s university issued email account;
   b. in person by the Dean of Students (or designee); or,
   c. mailed to the local or permanent address of the student as indicated in official university records.

   Once emailed, received in person, and/or mailed, such notice will be considered delivered. Students will be provided a minimum of two business days notice of their scheduled hearing. Exceptions may be made during finals week.

5. The letter of notice will at minimum outline: a) the alleged violation(s); b) notification of where to locate the Student Conduct Code; c) Student Conduct Code procedures for resolution of the complaint; and, d) notification of the date and time of the scheduled hearing.

B. Interim Actions
In certain circumstances, the Dean of Students or designee may impose interim actions during the student conduct process. Interim actions may be imposed:

1. to ensure the safety and well-being of the members of the university community or for preservation of university property;
2. to ensure the accused student’s own physical or emotional safety and well-being; or,
3. if the student poses an ongoing threat of disruption of, or interference with, the normal operations of the University.

Interim actions can include, but are not limited to, a no contact order, university suspension and/or residence hall suspension. Interim actions are in effect until rescinded by the Dean of Students or designee.

C. Informal Resolution
When allegations of misconduct have been received and reviewed by a Student Conduct Administrator, the complaint does not allege a violation of UNI policy 13.02 Discrimination, Harassment, or Sexual Misconduct Policy; and the parties involved wish to resolve the complaint without further student conduct proceedings, this is permissible provided:

1. it is approved by the Dean of Students or designee; and,
2. it is agreed to by the complainant and the respondent.

D. Hearing Resolution

1. Generally, conduct violations will be resolved in an administrative hearing with a Student Conduct Administrator.

   a. Allegations of a violation of the Discrimination, Harassment, or Sexual Misconduct Policy, 13.02, upon completion of investigation, through the Office of Compliance and Equity Management, are referred to the Office of Dean of Students for an appropriate hearing.

   b. For allegations of misconduct when sanctions may include suspension or expulsion from the University, hearings will be conducted in accordance with procedures established by the Dean of Students.

   c. Allegations of misconduct involving more than one complainant or respondent will be heard separately. At the discretion of the Dean of Students, the hearing pertinent to each complainant or respondent can be conducted jointly. However, separate determinations of responsibility will be made for each respondent.

2. Both the complainant and respondent have the right to one advisor of their own choosing.

   a. The role of an advisor is passive; they may not ask questions or make arguments during a hearing. They may confer quietly with their advisee, exchange notes, and suggest questions to their advisee.

   b. An advisor may be an advocate, parent, friend, staff, faculty member, attorney (at their own expense), or a person of their choosing not involved in the incident.

   c. When facing criminal charges concurrently, a student may have an attorney present, in addition to an advisor, at their own expense. Any attorney present is subject to the same limitations of an advisor.

3. Each party, through the investigation or hearing process, will have the opportunity to present information, make statements, including impact statements, and identify witnesses.

4. If the respondent, with notice, does not attend the hearing, the available information relating to the allegations of misconduct will be considered. Subsequently, determinations regarding responsibility and sanctions (if appropriate) will be made.

E. Decisions

1. Determinations of responsibility are made utilizing the preponderance of information standard. This means that it is more likely than not that a violation occurred.

2. Following a hearing, the respondent will be provided, within 10 business days, an outcome letter outlining determinations of responsibility and sanctions (if appropriate). Notice will be given in writing and may be delivered by one or more of the following methods:

   a. emailed to the student’s university issued email account;

   b. in person by the Dean of Students (or designee); or,

   c. mailed to the local or permanent address of the student as indicated in official university records.

   Once emailed, received in person, and/or mailed, such notice will be considered delivered.

3. In cases of allegations of sexual misconduct, violence, or where the law allows, notice of the outcome will be delivered to all parties simultaneously, meaning without substantial delay between the notifications to each party.

4. The student conduct process, barring extenuating circumstances, will seek resolution within [30] business days of the receipt of an allegation, excluding the appeal process.
F. Sanctions

One or more of the following sanctions may be imposed upon a respondent for being found responsible for a violation of misconduct. Sanctions determined will be proportionate to the severity of the violation and to the cumulative conduct history of the respondent. Sanctions may be noted on a respondent’s official academic transcript when the outcome requires the student’s separation from the university for any period of time.

1. Warning: An official written notice the respondent has violated the Student Conduct Code with the understanding that additional conduct actions would result should the respondent be involved in other violations while affiliated with the University.

2. Restitution: Requirement that the respondent provide compensation for damage caused to the University or any other person’s property. This could also include situations such as failure to return a reserved space to proper condition for labor costs and expenses. This is not a fine, but rather a repayment for labor costs and/or the value of the property destroyed, damaged, or stolen.

3. Fines: Reasonable fines may be imposed and used to offset the cost of educational sanctions.

4. Work Service Requirements: A specific number of unpaid service hours to the University or approved agency must be completed.

9. Restriction of Visitation Privileges: May be imposed on a resident or non-resident student. The parameters of the restriction will be specified.

10. Random Drug Testing: To be used for respondents who violate the drug policies.

12. Parental Notification: Parents or guardians may be notified in writing of violations of alcohol or drug policy for students under the age of 21.

13. Trespass: Notice of prohibited visitation from a specific location.

14. Housing Probation: Official notice that, should further violations of Department of Residence or university policies occur during a specified probationary period, the respondent may immediately be removed from university housing. Regular probationary meetings may also be imposed.

15. Housing Reassignment: Reassignment to another university housing facility. Department of Residence personnel will decide on the reassignment details.

16. Housing Suspension: Removal from university housing for a specified period of time after which the respondent is eligible to return. Conditions for readmission to university housing may be specify. Under this sanction, the respondent is required to vacate university housing within the timeframe outlined in the outcome letter. This sanction may be enforced with trespass action if necessary. Prior to reapplication for university housing, the respondent must gain permission from the Director of Residence Life or designee. This sanction may include restrictions on visitation to specified buildings or all university housing during the suspension.

17. Housing Expulsion: The respondent’s privilege to live in, or visit, any university housing structure is revoked indefinitely. This sanction may be enforced with a trespass action if deemed necessary.

18. Disciplinary Probation: The respondent is put on official notice that, should further violations of university policies occur during a specified probationary period, the respondent may face suspension or expulsion. Regular probationary meetings may also be imposed. Disciplinary probation means a student is not in good social standing with the University.

19. Suspension Held in Abeyance: Separation from the University is deferred for the period of the suspension, with the provision that lesser sanction(s) be completed within that period of time and no additional information alleging misconduct is discovered regarding the incident. If the student is found responsible for violations of other misconduct during the period of suspension held in abeyance, the sanction of Disciplinary Suspension will be immediately imposed.

20. Disciplinary Suspension: Separation from the University for a specified minimum period of time, after which the respondent is eligible to return. Eligibility may be contingent upon satisfaction of specific conditions noted at the time of suspension. The respondent is required to vacate university housing within the timeframe outlined in the outcome letter. During the suspension period, the respondent is banned from university property, functions, events and activities without prior written approval from the Dean of Students. This sanction may be enforced with a trespass action as necessary.

21. Expulsion: Permanent separation from the University. The student is banned from university property and the respondent’s presence at any university-sponsored activity or event is prohibited. This action may be enforced with trespass action as necessary.

26. Withholding Degree: The University may withhold awarding a degree otherwise earned until the completion of the process set forth in the student conduct code, including the completion of all sanctions imposed, if any.

G. Appeals

1. A decision reached by a Student Conduct Administrator may be appealed by the respondent(s) or the complainant(s) to the Dean of Students within five (5) business days of the decision.

2. Appeals under or relating to the Discrimination, Harassment, or Sexual Misconduct Policy 13.02 will be in accordance with the provisions of policy 13.02.
3. Appeals must be made in writing and state the reason(s) for the appeal. The decision at each level is based on the written information provided by the Student Conduct Administrator/appeal officer, the respondent, and the complainant (if applicable) for the appeal.

4. Appeals must be delivered in person to the Office of the Dean of Students. If the Dean of Students was the Student Conduct Administrator in a given case the appeal will be considered by the Vice President for Student Affairs. Failure to submit an appeal, meeting the above requirements will result in the decision of the Student Conduct Administrator being final.

The bases for appeals are limited to the following:
1. A procedural error or omission occurred that significantly impacted the outcome.
2. The presentation of new information, that was previously unknown, or other relevant facts unknown or unavailable during the hearing that could sufficiently alter the decision. A summary of this new information and its potential impact upon the outcome must be included in the appeal. Failure to participate in the hearing may not be used as a basis for filing an appeal under this section.
3. Sanctions imposed are substantially disproportionate to the severity of the violation.

Options for Appeal:
1. Level I: Decisions of the Student Conduct Administrator may be appealed to the Dean of Students (or the Vice President for Student Affairs designee). The appeal officer may affirm, reverse, or modify the original decision regarding the violations and/or sanctions imposed. The original finding and sanction(s) will stand if the appeal is not timely or is not based on the grounds listed above. For conduct cases involving a complainant other than the University, when one party requests an appeal, the other party (parties) will be notified and given up to five business days to respond. At the conclusion of those five business days, or upon receiving appeal requests from all parties involved, a decision will be rendered within ten business days.

2. Level II: Decisions of the Dean of Students (or the Vice President for Student Affairs designee) may be appealed to the Vice President for Student Affairs, within five business days following the above outlined procedures. The Vice President for Student Affairs will render a decision within ten business days. Decisions of the Vice President for Student Affairs are final from the perspective of the University.

3. The Board of Regents, State of Iowa, may review the final decision of the University. Appeals of decisions to the Board of Regents must be submitted according to the rules and procedures established by that body.

H. Failure to Complete Sanctions
Respondents are expected to comply with conduct sanctions within the time frame specified. Failure to do so may result in additional sanctions including, but not limited to, a hold on their university account. A hold placed on a student’s university account will affect their ability to register for classes, obtain official transcripts, and/or graduate. All sanctions must be satisfied prior to restoring eligibility of reenrollment.

XIII: Student Conduct Records
All conduct records are maintained by the University for seven years and will not be disclosed after that except for:
A. Violations that result in suspension or expulsion;
B. Incidents that allege a violation of the Discrimination, Harassment, and Sexual Misconduct Policy 13.02; and/or,
C. Data used for aggregate statistical purposes.

Student conduct records will be disclosed only in accordance with the Student Records policy 3.11.

The Dean of Students or designee will conduct annual training on the student conduct process with Student Conduct Administrators, Conduct Board members, and those deemed appropriate or required by law. Training will be conducted in a manner that is consistent with the provisions of the Student Conduct Code.

XV: Revisions
The Student Conduct Code will be comprehensively reviewed at the direction of the Dean of Students no less than once every five years. The Dean of Students may make minor modifications to procedures that do not materially change the process. The Dean of Students may change material procedures with notice (on the University’s policy website, with appropriate date of effect identified) upon determining that changes of law or regulation require said changes. Procedures in effect at the time the allegation is made will apply. Policy in effect at the time of the offense will apply even if the policy is changed subsequently, unless the parties consent to be bound by the current policy or applicable law requires otherwise.

Are we comfortable with this time-frame? I realize/understand it must be done in a reasonable time-frame and we have stated this is “barring extenuating circumstances” and is part of “seek(ing)” resolution”.

If you are ok with us deleting a time frame we are ok with it, we were kind of using it for staff to understand they need to get these things processed in a timely manner, but we are ok to delete if you think that this would not be an issue.
